

Confidentiality Agreement

"We respect and uphold an individual's right to privacy."

Variety - The Children's Charity collects information from individuals and organizations for the sole purpose of Variety's business.

In compliance with the laws with respect to the collection, use and disclosure of personal information, Variety requires that all Board members, staff and volunteers sign a confidentiality agreement with respect to personal information collected and stored about donors and clients.

Guiding Principle

Board members, staff and volunteers are advised and agree that personal information must not be collected, used, or disclosed without prior knowledge and consent of the individual. All signatories of our agreement agree not to share, sell or trade personal information about Variety's members, staff, volunteers, donors or clients.

For a copy of our full Confidentiality Statement, please contact Variety - The Children's Charity at 604.320.0505 or toll-free 1.800.381.2040.